DEDICATION

TO MR. STONE:

As through the vista of the years
We turn to heed fond memory's call,
Thy helpful service then endears
The one we hail best friend of all!
Friend of our youth! true, patient, kind
Through this past year thy heart the same
In loving thoughts, deep joy we find
To bring just tribute to thy name.

COUNSELORS

MRS. ASENATH BENNETT

Under the able supervision of Mr. Ralph Jack, guidance co-ordinator, Saintland's five competent counselors were able to devote more time to each student this year. Mrs. Eleanor Peterson and Mr. Edward Dodge counseled seniors and juniors; Mrs. Asenath Bennett and Mrs. Nora White, seniors and sophomores; and Mr. Flood, sophomores. Their readiness to help students with college plans, future jobs, and class schedules is greatly appreciated.

A T I O N S

Marcia Huebner, Literary Editor

Under the leadership of this year's editor, Marcia Huebner, and her assistant editors, Leslie Bowyer and Susie Stout, the staff has succeeded in helping to make an outstanding yearbook. Their work has included organizing the book, writing stories for it, and proofreading. Much time, effort, and frustration went into this yearbook and we may well be proud of the result.

The staff is extremely grateful to Mr. Risa for his endless and patient supervision, Mrs. LaMain for her part in the story writing, and Miss Sewell for her literary advice.

This year the Business Staff has been under the efficient supervision of Mr. Riordan, advisor, and Cheryl Fiduccia, editor. They have been very ably assisted by Kathy Ledbeter, assistant editor.

Through its hard work the Business Staff has contributed to the outstanding success of this year's Ariel.

Pam Kennedy, Art Editor

Planning and executing the front and inside of the cover and the division pages was the job of the Ariel Art Staff. With the unending assistance of Mrs. Linda Boucher, advisor, Pam distinguished herself as art editor. Keeping with the theme "Foundations for the Future," she added a contemporary touch to make this year's Ariel truly unique.

ARIEL ART STAFF

Pam Kennedy, Mrs. Boucher

An invaluable contribution to the 1963 yearbook was made by our Ariel Photography Staff. Led by their editor, Gary Crane, and advisor, Mr. Bowe, these students devoted much time to capturing in picture many of the highlights of student life and social, club, and athletic events. Their efforts have added greatly to the quality of our Ariel.

ARIEL PHOTOGRAPHY STAFF

C. Farquharson, G. Crane, Mr. Bowe, B. Eutsey.

Susan Salquist, Kirk Finley, Editors.

The duties of a school newspaper, as of any publication, are to inform, publicize, and entertain. Under the capable advisorship of Mrs. Gladys La Main, editor-in-chief Susan Salquist, and managing-editor Kirk Finley, the Generator Staff of 1962-1963 has, indeed, carried out these aims successfully. The Generator staff has provided, semi-monthly, complete news coverage in all areas of social and academic interests. The Student Body of Santa Ana High School lauds and supports their fine journalistic achievements.

Santa Ana High's literary publication, Leaves in the Wind, was partially written, edited, and published by the Senior ASP English class this year due to the fact that there was no creative writing class. Advised by Mr. Dean Mayberry, the senior English class also chose the best works of other Saintland students. Many thanks to the Senior ASP English class; Carol Hyneman, Editor-in-chief; April Gordon, Literary editor; Ken James, Managing Editor; and all who contributed to this year's Leaves in the Wind.

CLASSES

SENIOR COUNSELORS

Members of the class of sixty-three will long remember the first semester of this year.

Heading the senior class as officers were Bob Shuler, President; Sue Ruth, Vice-President; and Barbara Redding, Secretary. With their leadership and the co-operation of Mrs. White, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Peterson, and Mr. Dodge, the senior counselors, our school spirit has reached a new height.

As a result of the officers' efforts and the support of the senior class, traditions such as a senior lawn, lunch line, and Burmuda Day were established. The juniors and sophomores can look forward to carrying on these privileges.

Bob Shuler, President

Sue Ruth, Vice-President; Barbara Redding, Secretary.

Mrs. Nora White, Mrs. Eleanor Peterson, Mrs. Asenath Bennett, Mr. Ed Dodge.

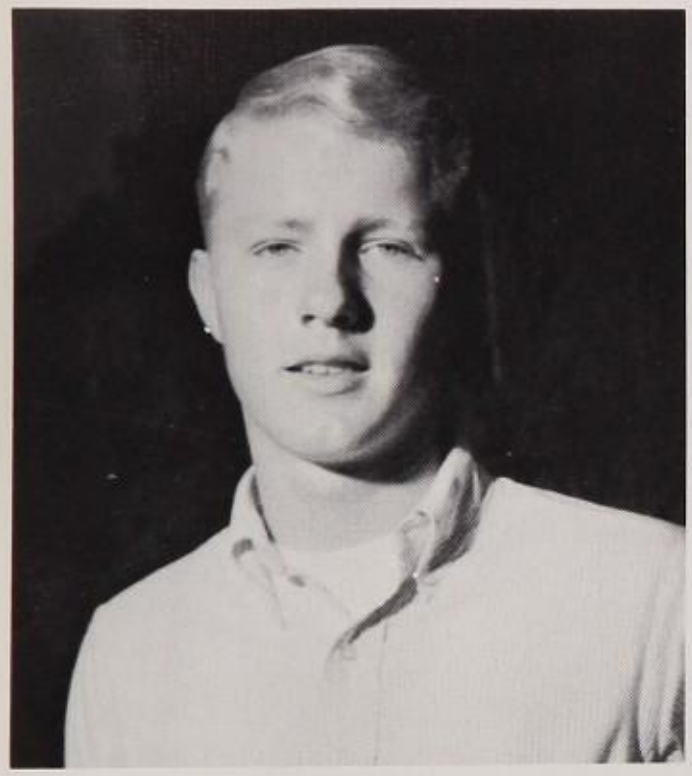
SENIOR ADVISOR

Adding their own personal touches to the second semester were senior class officers Bill Davis, President; Allen Craig, Vice-President; and Sharon McCowan, Secretary. The seniors, under the leadership of these three people, were most ambitious to make this graduating year the best.

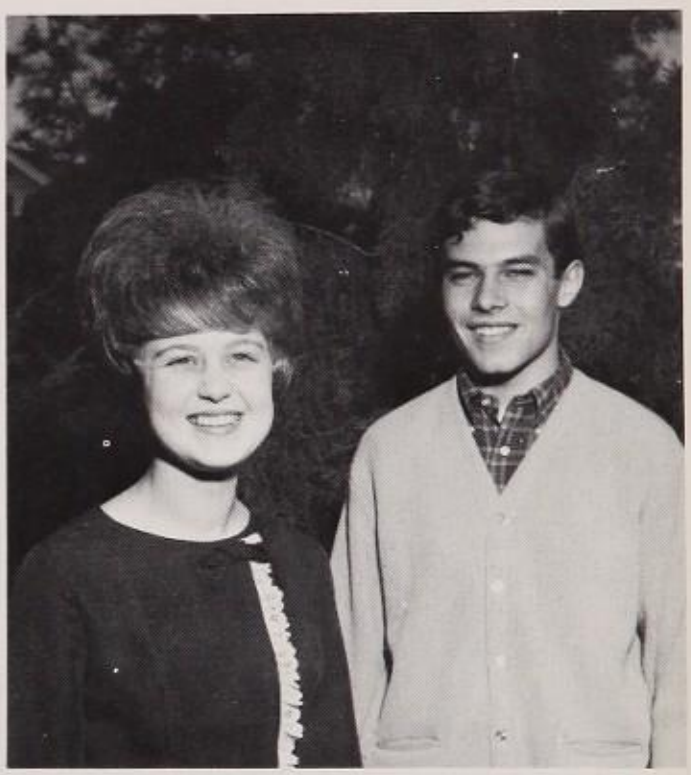
Among the various activities in which the senior class has participated are: "Little Mary Sunshine," Junior-Senior Prom, Senior Play, and Senior Breakfast followed by the well-earned Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

These activities and traditions were made possible by a person, who, through time and co-operation, has contributed much to the Class of 1963. Our sincere thoughts of appreciation go, therefore, to Mr. Melvin McCord, the senior class advisor.

The senior class officers who have faithfully rendered their services to making 1963 a well remembered year are to be highly commended.



Bill Davis, President



Sharon McCowen, Secretary; Allen Craig, Vice-President.

JUNIOR

Tim Wilson, President

Steve Treadgold, Vice-President; Becky Hunter, Secretary.

This year has proven to be a wonderful and successful year for the junior class. They have accomplished a great deal both academically and socially.

Heading the junior class and showing their abilities of leadership were Tim Wilson, President; Steve Treadgold, Vice-President; and Becky Hunter, Secretary. They also head the committee in charge of the Junior-Senior Prom. Together with the supervision of Mr. Wilson, the junior class advisor, they have done a commendable job.

The juniors have met their jobs with determination and enthusiasm, and they have completed a year of which they can be very proud. Now with some experience behind them, they look forward with eager anticipation to their senior year.

Mr. John Wilson, Advisor

Counselors: Mrs. Eleanor Peterson, Mr. Ed Dodge.

The sophomore class of 1962-1963, the largest Santa Ana Hign nas ever had, has been very active and successful this year. Although they did not get a chance to sponsor anything, they have enthusiastically attended the football, basketball, track, and baseball games. Besides these athletic events they have attended the dances, "Little Mary Sunshine," "No Mother to Guide Her" or "More To Be Pitied than Censored," and Taming of the Shrew."

This year's class officers were Steve Greenwalt. President; Steve Rios, Vice-President; and, Ruth Ann Stephenson, Secretary. Mr. Flood, who was the Sophomore Class advisor for the first time this year, has done an excellent job promoting and supporting the class.

Frank Sellers, Drum Major

This year the football season has been highlighted by the enthusiastic participation of the "Marching Saints," under the direction of Mr. Harold Reuter and Drum Major, Frank Sellers.

The entertaining half-time shows seen at every home game will be remembered by all for their originality and zest. Two of the most outstanding shows were "The Guessing Game" and "Jungle to Jive" which ended with several members of the band twisting.

Much appreciation and praise go to the "Marching Saints" for their excellent performance.

Nicoletta Vaglio

Nicoletta Vaglio left her home in Torino, Italy, to come to America for two reasons: she wanted to learn about the United States and teach about Italy. She has done that and more. She has shown, through personal charm and keenness of mind, that she was a fine choice to be an A.F.S. good will ambassador.

Nicoletta's visit was made possible by the American Field Service and through the kindness of the Lynn H. Lende family, who shared their home. Nicoletta has learned to enjoy many American foods and activities and will, undoubtedly, share them with her family and friends at home. In completing the exchange idea, she has taught her American friends Italian customs. Nicoletta has proven once more what a wonderful program the American Field Service has created.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Erik Svaneborg

Kalundborg, Denmark, is the home town of exchange student, Erik Svaneborg. Erik, under the sponsorship of the American Field Service and sharing the home of the Robert E. Bowyer family, has found many differences between Santa Ana and Kalundborg. Freeways, millions of people, orange groves and our warm climate were all new to him. It is in these differences and in making comparisons with Denmark, however, that the value of Erik's experience is made apparent. The whole A.F.S. idea is a program of learning.

Hoping to make a career in the Danish diplomatic corps, Erik is well on his way to fulfilling his wish. As an exchange student, he has demonstrated friendliness, an ability to learn and a willingness to tell about his native Denmark. All these qualities are necessary elements for a future in diplomacy.

Erik's trip and study will not soon be forgotten by either him or his American friends.

AMERICANS ABROAD

Trondheim, Norway, was the "home town" of Lani Alleman, an A.F.S. American Abroad, for the first semester of her senior year. After completing many applications and waiting through many anxious months in her junior year, Lani was notified that she was to spend seven months with the Hoyem family in wonderful Trondheim. In June, 1962, Lani left on an adventure that exceeded even her most thrilling dreams. She sailed across the Atlantic, traveled by train across northern Europe, studied Norwegian in Oslo, and went to school in Trondheim.

Becoming fluent in the language of her new friends enabled Lani to get acquainted with many Norwegian customs. She learned to know and understand Norway and her people. Now that she is home again, she can help more Americans understand the Scandinavians. In doing this, Lani is fulfilling the purpose of her sponsor, the American Field Service.

Lani Alleman

Senior Susan Salquist spent six months in Kulmbach, Germany, this year. As a part of the American Field Service program, Susan lived with a German family, that of Heinz Andrae, and saw and took part in many traditions of romantic Germany. Standing out in Susan's life in her foreign home are the boat trips on the "fabulous Rhein" and a visit to divided Berlin. In these two memories Susan holds a picture of both beautiful and tragic Germany.

Learning the language and going to school were of major importance to our "Saint abroad." Susan is now better able to understand the situations and viewpoints of a people whose country is of world-wide importance.

NO MOTHER TO GUIDE HER OR MORE TO BE PITIED THAN CENSORED

Already famous for such past hits as "A Working Girl's Secret," "Oklahoma!," "The Man Who Came to Dinner," "The Boyfriend," and "You Can't Take It with You," a talented group of actors in Santa Ana High School presented "No Mother to Guide Her" as its Winter Play.

Under the enthusiastic guidance of Joyce Heidecke as student director and the thoroughness of Jeff Evans as stage manager, the 1962 Winter Play was expertly presented. The cast was headed by Sandy Anderson seen as Spring Overton; Curtis Pope as Caspar Vandenburgh; and Dave Kinwald as Talbot Twillingham.

During the entire week before the play, the true spirit of the old melodramas was felt, as posters went up, handbills were passed out, and skits were given concerning the play. To add to the atmosphere at the theatre, the P.T.A. sold popcorn and root beer with the waiters and waitresses dressed in appropriate costumes.

Santa Ana High School is fortunate to have the enthusiastic and versatile leadership of Walden Leeching, head of the Drama Department. His influence as Drama Coach has reached nearly all of the students at Santa Ana High School for the past four years.

LITTLE MARY SUNSHINE

"You've got to hand it to Little Mary Sunshine." These lyrics rang through the halls and still resound in proud memory of this year's musical. More than eighty hours rehearsal time contributed to the overwhelming success of Little Mary Sunshine.

Both stunning performances were adequate tribute to the dedication of an outstanding cast headed by Shirley Schrader as Little Mary and Ken James as Captain Jim with Diane Hall, Richard Lewis, Susan Holloway, Frank Sellers, Leonard Riley, and Roy Irwin. Numerous others including the Forest Rangers and Young Ladies from East Chester Finishing School added greatly to the success.

The Production Staff by no means took a position of subordinate importance. Under the inspiring guidance of Mr. Walden Leecing; student directors, Georgia Alleman and Sandy Anderson; and the many eager chairmen and members of various committees so necessary for coordination in production, the play was hailed as a success.

Espris de corps ran high, smoothly blending cast, staff, and orchestra into one precise unit. Several experiments proved successful this year: a special sound system improved the acoustics, reserved seating guaranteed a fine view; and a whispering campaign awarded valuable prizes. As an extra-added attraction our uniformed Forest Rangers could be seen parading down Fourth Street announcing the play. The musical truly proved that excellence is a tradition at S.A.H.S.

Only eight lettermen returned for the 1962 season. But head coach "Bus" McKnight, ably assisted by line coach Nick Roussos, back coach Earl Engman, and end coach Jack Dennen, developed a team which compiled a 6 win 3 loss record. The Saints were lead by tri-captains Rudy Andrade, Ken James, and Ted Reed.

The Saints began the season with a 6—0 victory over cross-city rival, Valley. The game was later forfeited because of an ineligible player. They then defeated Chaffey in a wild 33—20 game. In league play, the Saints dropped Rancho 27—0, lost to a strong Westminster team 33—0, defeated Costa Mesa 32—0 on Color Day, lost a heart-breaker in the last four seconds to a fired up Western team 7—6, were overpowered by arch-rival Anaheim 34—6, and ended their season with wins over Newport 33—6 and Fullerton 33—0.

Steve Tompkins was chosen Saint of the Year. Saint captain Rudy Andrade was chosen Most Inspirational and Richard Goode was chosen Most Improved Player.

Steve Tompkins, Rudy Andrade, Richard Goode, and Ted Reed made all-league honors. Tompkins, Reed, and Andrade also were selected for the all-county team.

A nucleus of six returning lettermen plus the fine coaching of Bill Ross enabled the 1963 Saint sluggers to have another outstanding year.

The Saints exhibited plenty of hustle and spirit as they brought back many victories to their school.

Saintland can expect another good team next year due to the improved Junior Varsity coached by Nick Roussos. They represented their school well during the 1963 season.

Valley defeated the Saint cindermen by one point in the Santa Ana Relays at Santa Ana College. In their last pre-league meet, the Saints took third in the Tustin Invitational Track Meet.

At press time, the Saints had defeated Rancho Alamitos 90—14 to open their Sunset League schedule.

Individual stars included Gil Rangel and Bill Cambell, distance; Louie Muneiz and Stan Kinkade, hurdles; and Eddie Preston, sprints and broad jump. Ron Jackson proved to be one of the Sunset League's best shot-putters and Mike Weinrich, Harvey McMeekin, and Ted Parks all cleared 6'0" in the high jump.

SWIMMING

At press time, the varsity swimming team was in the midst of a fine season. Coached by Gerald White, the squad is backed by excellent swimmers such as John Porter, who excels in the individual medley; Tony Glason, in the butterfly and breast strokes; Tim Hendrick, in the back stroke and distance events; and Charles Edgerton in the sprints and individual medley.

This season the team boasts an excellent record with four wins and only one loss, losing that to Upland, 56—39 in the first meet of the year. The other scores, in order, are: Santa Ana 51, Corona Del Mar 44; Santa Ana 52, Rancho Alamitos 43; Santa Ana 48, Riverside 47; Santa Ana 70, Westminster 23.

Roy Irwin — Captain

Plagued by inexperience, the Saint water poloists had a rebuilding year in 1962-63. Gerald White, in his first year at Santa Ana High, took over as head coach and produced many fine players. The Varsity was captained by Roy Irwin, while the Bee captain was Tom Rapp and the Cee captain was Fred Hanson.

The high point of the season was the double-overtime victory over Western by a score of 10—8. The Varsity also defeated arch-rival Anaheim for the first time in many years.

Although the Varsity had a losing season, there is hope that the many returning lettermen will spark the Saint tankers to their best season ever next year.

Returning lettermen this season were Carl Kibbey, Jim Styring, and Roy Irwin. Goalie Dave Gross was chosen Most Valuable Player.

WRESTLING

After one year's absence, wrestling returned to Santa Ana High in 1962. Warren Johnson and Henry Aguilera coached the inexperienced matmen to a "rebuilding year."

Two members from the 1960-61 squad, Chuck Antos and Terry Lambeth, led the Saint wrestlers to a full schedule which included the Western Tournament and the Orange Coast Invitational Tournament.

What this year's squad lacked in experience, they made up for with aggressiveness and sportsmanship.

Many returning lettermen should spark the Saint wrestlers to a more successful season next year.

Ralph Crandall was named on the 1962 all-Sunset League First Team and Bill Morales, Chuck Rapp, and Tom Carr were placed on the second team.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

One of the most active clubs on campus is the Girls' Athletic Association. It was founded as a necessary part of school life to provide interested girls with an opportunity not only to exercise athletic enthusiasm in the social and recreational areas of volleyball, hockey, basketball, softball, tennis, and swimming, but also to develop sportsmanship and co-operation with fellow students. The club is well-known for its promotion of school spirit, its constant service, and the added recognition it has claimed for Santa Ana High.

This year the organization has been led by Harriet Kobayashi, Fall Semester President, and Jacquie Ransom, Spring Semester President. These two girls and their respective boards were under the direction of their teacher-advisors headed by Mrs. Beverly Romero and including Miss Bertie Ann Stevens, Mrs. Jennie Hayes, and Mrs. Barbara Cox with the faithful and invaluable aid of Mrs. Nora Clark.

As one of its functions G.A.A. worked with the Girls' League to plan the Big-and-Little Sister Day. The members also participated in the Girls' Athletic Association Convention, created the third annual water show, attended their Fall and Spring Parties, held the annual Awards Banquet to honor the outstanding girls and advisors, and traveled throughout the year to various schools in the community for competition in every area of girls' athletics.
